

DETR 2011 Spectator Information

Tickets

Tickets can be collected from the Kings Arms on Friday evening after 6pm. The pub is quite large, with multiple bars; tickets can be collected from the little side room immediately on your left as you come in through the main door on Parks Road. The KA serves food until 9pm, and has a late licence until 1am on Friday.

The Kings Arms is at 40 Holywell Street, Oxford, OX1 3SP:

There is limited parking in Oxford city centre, so we strongly recommend not driving to the Kings Arms. If you are staying in the YHA, it is a 15 minute walk. If you are staying at Stansfeld, catch the 15 bus to the High Street, walk back to the pedestrian crossing by the Old Bank Hotel, cross over and walk along Catte Street. Catte Street does join up with the High Street (for pedestrians) whatever google maps says.

There will be DETR 2011 t-shirts and programmes on sale at the KA, and you can order the DVD which is being made of the competitions and showcase. The programme contains a detailed map, showing all the venues involved in DETR.

If you won't be there on Friday evening, then there will also be people available in the side room of the Kings Arms during the day on Saturday to give out booked tickets, sell programmes, etc.

Accommodation

If you have booked accommodation at the youth hostel, then you should check in at the hostel, which is at 2a Botley Road, OX2 0BA. If you have booked indoor camping places at Stansfeld, then you will receive a separate sheet of details about the venue.

Competitions

There are several competitions running on Saturday 5th March.

DErTy

The Youth competition takes place in the Bate Collection between 1pm and 2pm. The Bate Collection is part of the Oxford University Faculty of Music on St Aldates, OX1 1DB.

Space is expected to be extremely limited, so please be prepared to stand!

Main Competition

The main competition takes place in the city centre pubs between 11:30am and 4:30pm.

The competing teams have a “warm up” session in the following pubs from 10:30 til 11:30:

- The Port Mahon: 82 St Clement’s Street, OX4 1AW
- The Half Moon: 18 St Clement’s Street, OX4 1AB
- The Angel & Greyhound: 30 St Clement’s Street, OX4 1AB
- The Chequers (from 11am): 131 High Street, OX1 4DH (down an alley by Hotel Chocolat)
- The Crown: 59a Cornmarket, OX1 3HB (down the side of McDonalds)
- Royal Oak: 42-44 Woodstock Road, OX2 6HT.

The competition begins at 11:30am. Nine tour groups will tour round the five competition pubs; by staying in any one pub you can see every dance team perform there. The first two competition dances will be 11:30am-1:15pm, when there will be a short break for lunch. The final three competition dances will be 2pm-4:30pm.

The competition pubs are:

- The Kings Arms: 40 Holywell Street, OX1 3SP
- The Royal Blenheim: 13 St Ebbes Street, OX1 1PT
- The Duke’s Cut: 1 Park End Street, OX1 1HH
- Far From the Madding Crowd: 10-12 Friars Entry, OX1 2BY
- Freud’s: Walton Street, OX2 6AH.

Traditional Competition

The traditional competition takes place in the Town Hall Assembly Rooms between 6:30pm and 7:30pm. The Assembly Rooms are next to the main evening venue, and the bar will be open from 5:30pm.

Evening Meal

Anyone who booked a spectator ticket is entitled to an evening meal. The meals are served between 5:00pm and 6:30pm at a number of different venues, and your coloured ticket indicates which venue you should go to. Please only go to the correct venue for your ticket!

The ticket colours/venues are as follows:

Venue	Ticket Colour
Royal Blenheim	Red
Duke's Cut	Purple
Far From the Madding Crowd	Blue
Honey Pot	Orange
Jam Factory	Yellow

Evening Showcase

The evening showcase takes place in the Town Hall from 7:30pm. All competing and exhibiting teams will perform, and the evening ends with prizes being awarded to competition winners. You'll be able to buy T-shirts (providing we haven't run out!) and order DVDs.

It is expected that the showcase will end around 10:30pm. The Royal Blenheim has a licence until 2am for those who want to continue drinking and/or partying.

Sunday

The winners of the premiere competition are invited to run a workshop between 11am and 12 in Stansfeld on Sunday morning. We will then decamp to the Kings Arms for furthering drinking, hopefully some informal dancing, lunch (not included) and farewells.
